“ Christy and Mellissa, I am so sorry for your loss. I know how hard it is. Try to remember that love never dies. You still love him and he still loves you. That hasn't changed. Try to keep that thought in your hearts. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

I always liked your dad, and so did my folks. He was very likable and I always believed him to be a good man. I know he will be missed by many, especially you two. Just put one foot in front of the other to keep going, one step at a time, and you will slowly come out of the fog. You will always miss him, but you won't always feel lost without him. And remember, you will see him again one day. I truly believe that.

I am sorry I can not be there today. My heart and thoughts are with you both. With love, your cousin Lynne.

“ To all the Marcengill family I am so very sorry to hear of David's passing. It is with a heavy heart to I must let you know I will be unable to attend the memorial services as I will be in Columbia and the VA Hospital tomorrow. I would much prefer being there for moral support to my lovely family members who are most effected by this loss. I will be praying and thinking of you all at the service time and I know GOD will wrap you all in his loving arms and comfort you as you go through this most difficult time. Please know that David is no longer in pain or suffering from that horrible Cancer that has taken so many of our loved ones. GOD bless you all and know that I love you.

Your loving Cousin,
