“ From our first meeting standing in line at the University of Houston to select our classes, to meeting again as dorm roommates, Dave and I became lifelong friends. I still remember attending his wedding to Ann and have visited them throughout their moves to Atlanta, Houston, Cincinnati, and South Carolina.

I was lucky enough for Dave to share duck hunting and fishing trips with me and not laugh too hard at my inexperience. We enjoyed our couples trips to New Braunfels, Hawaii, Colorado, and Myrtle Beach.

Dave was blessed to have a great family and many friends who loved him and he enjoyed sharing stories about his and Ann's travels but especially his fishing trips. One of my favorite memories was our "5 o'clock cocktail hour" and the conversations we enjoyed sitting anywhere from his porch in Houston to his deck at the lake. I will always remember him as being a positive and professional person in everything he did.

Dave, we will miss you. Harold and Susan###imported-begin###Harold and Susan Codainne###imported-end##

“ Ann, please accept our sincere condolences to you and your family. We admired Dave greatly and truly enjoyed knowing him. We'll never forget watching the transformation of your corner as Dave landscaped it. Passing by will always bring a reminder of his diligence and a smile to our faces. May the beautiful memories of your life together help you to bear the loss.

With love and prayers,

“ Dearest Clark Family:
David was just the best! He was "Mr. Mellow", always ready with a smile, a drink, or a joke. Butch and I always had such fun with our buddies, the Clarks. We all just got along-kids, cats, dogs-all were welcome at the Clarks'. We never had to be fancy or "cutting edge". We always knew we were enjoyed and valued. That really doesn't happen very often. Dave was such a wonderful friend, husband, father, host, sportsman, and businessman. We should all aspire to put more "Dave" in our lives, and we would all be happier better people. We miss you so much and know you are spreading your special brand of goodness wherever you are- hopefully, in a hunting preserve with huge flocks of ducks, and the best Scotch ever!
All our love,
