“ *Dear Donnie, Jerrid, Jimmy, Blane and Family,
My heart sank to hear that MY FRIEND, Diane, has gone on to Heaven.
My memories of her happy, encouraging and always loving friendship towards me are precious. They flood in as I realize her service is in progress as I write this. Even though we lost contact years ago, her sweet spirit is with me always.
I really wish we could have come, to show our love and support to you, her wonderful Family.*

*She lives on with Her Lord, but will be missed here.
Love you all very much,

“ Ms. Diane was such a sweet woman. Our meetings were normally on her way to the bathroom during her break time as she passed the csm podium. I enjoyed these encounters because she always smiled and said something funny as she walked by. I will definitely miss this :(

“ To the Gossett family. I am so very sorry for your loss. I worked with Diane at Wal-Mart and she was truly one of the good ones. She was an encourager, a friend, a hard worker and had a kind heart. May God give you comfort and peace during this difficult time, may your hearts be filled with precious memories and joy at knowing that you will see her again one day. God Bless and Keep Each of you.
