“ Don was one of the most charismatic and best storytellers I've ever known. I was so blessed to be part of the crowd that gathered around the fire pit at his campsite. Those that gathered knew we would enjoy a glass of wine and Don was sure to share a story from a chapter of his life that would always make us laugh. He was such a joy and will be so missed. May God comfort his family and all of us who were fortunate enough to have known him.
