

Mr. Donald Harold Weekes

July 29, 1926 - January 25, 2017

Donald Harold Weekes died peacefully in his sleep at his son's home on Wednesday, January 25, 2016, after living 90 years. He was known as "Big D" to numerous friends and to many others as their sewing machine repairman. Donald was also a World War II Navy veteran and a retiree of advertising management with Kodak.

He was predeceased by his wife: Norma Florence (Marhatta) Weekes; and his son: Richard Norman Weekes.

Donald is survived by his two sons: Donald Arthur Weekes and Brian Earl Weekes; as well as his two grandchildren: Myles Earl Weekes and Tara Beth Weekes; and seven great-grandchildren.

No funeral services will be arranged, but condolences are welcomed at the home of Donald A. Weekes in Walhalla, SC.

“ Sharing Christmas Eve every year while growing up, the way he used his fingers as a mannerism, his wit, and smile will last me (us) a lifetime. A piece of history also passed since Uncle Don was on the USS Missouri when Japan surrendered WW2. The radio man for the Flag ship. Love you Uncle Don.
