“ Doris and I were friends all during our teenage years. Her dad cut hair on Saturdays at their house. While waiting in line for a haircut, Doris and I played Checkers. Doris was a good player and usually won which she enjoyed immensely! I can still hear her victory laugh. RIP, my friend - Jack Pell

“ I will always treasure the times that Doris kept me & Gene after school until mama got home from work . What ever we wanted to do she was all up for it . Mama would leave cornbread or leftover biscuits & we 3 would get fresh onions out of the garden & have a snack . We loved every minute of it . In later years as I would run into Doris , she was always the same , a big laugh , hug & smile from ear to ear . I will surely miss her & hate so much I can't be there . Love to you all , I will be thinking & praying for you all .
