“ Doris was such a shining light in my life when she came into Heirlooms to shop for her quilting projects. She and my mom had a great rapport and were so respectful of each other. Fond memories of her zest for life and her sense of humor and her ability to laugh at herself will remain with me for years to come. I share your sense of loss and sincerely hope that your memories will help to sustain you in the difficult days of adjustment ahead.

“ My mother wasn't a Salem native but loved the south and southern people.

She was very artistic, she painted in oils and pastels, quilted gorgeous quilts and lived life to the fullest.
