“ One of my favorite memories of Grandma Harbin is when she was visiting us in Jensen Beach and my son Noah was just a toddler. We'd put music on in the living room and he would go over to where she was sitting and pull on her hands so she'd get up to dance with him.##imported-begin##Julie LeBriton##imported-end##

“ Grandma I have so many memories of you and they are all wonderful. I remember when you came to see us when my brother Jon was born I asked you how old you were. You said, Child I'm 44. I said is that old? You said, oh no David I'm just beginning to live. I remember asking you what grits were at breakfast once, and you said, David honey they are good. Just eat them. She then told Uncle Jimmy to show me how to mix them with my eggs. Its still a favorite dish of mine today. I remember when you asked grandpa and uncle Jo Barry to come watch me pitch one summer when we lived in Tampa. I struck out 17 and threw a no hitter. I was so happy I had done well, and when I asked you what you thought, you said, oh david I knew you would do well, why do you think we came? I'll never forget when we would watching He Haw and Johnny Cash was on, you would always go to the kitchen and I asked you why. Oh David, I love the man's voice I just can't watch him sing! You are a special lady, one who never judged anyone. I'm proud you are my grandmother and proud of how you lived your life. You will always be in my heart. Your grandson, David###imported-begin##David R. Waldron###imported-end##

“ I didn't get to see you as much as I would have hoped to over the past several years, but memories of you will always be in my heart.

Snapping green beans, stirring grits, and of course learning how to play Spades and Gin Rummy.

Grandma-I am sure you have already found Lilian and the chair she had waiting for you in the Bingo Parlor beyond.
