“ I had the great honor for getting to know, love, and care for Dot during her time at the Inn at Seneca. She was such a beautiful lady who took pride in herself. She called me Lou Lou and we shared many great times together. She will be missed but I know she is so happy in heaven with her beloved husband.

“ Ms. Dot was a wonderful friend of mine and will be missed dearly. I will miss her warmth, humor & beautiful smile. We shared many good times that I will remember & cherish in days to come. You have fought the fight & have now won the battle Ms. Dot. Rest in peace my precious friend. I know you have made it home.

*Hugs & kisses,
