“ I had a long conversation by phone with Ms. Blackwell less than two weeks ago. Her kind words, her devotion to the Lord, and her good wishes for me in my own quest will echo in my heart forever. She must have been a very special lady to have been able to reach out to me with words of encouragement over the phone like she did. May she rest in peace. My condolences to her family.

*Dear Family of Edie's,
You are all in my prayers. Edie was a sweet kind lady. It was so nice knowing her. She will be missed. I loved her and I know she loved her family.
She's now walking with Jesus and happier than ever.
Warmest Reagrds.*

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family and many friends of Edie. She was a wonderful person. She was always kind and caring. There was always laughter when Edie was around. She will be greatly missed.
