“ We were deeply saddened by the news of Aunt Edith's death. I will always remember visiting her and uncle Bea, when I was growing up, with my grandmother Maggie and granddad Walter and the delicious meals she prepared. She was such a lovely, sweet lady, always smiling. I always think of her when our red amarillas - that she gave my mother Mabel - bloom. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time.

“ Dear Genell and Family you are in our thoughts and prayers at this time. Your Mother was a dear sweet lady that I will always remember fondly. She is now at peace and with her loved ones that have gone before. We will get to be with her again some day and have a family reunion with her and all our loved ones.
Sincerely,
Kay and Charles Evett
