“ I have so many wonderful memories of my Aunt Edith. One thing I will share now is that her brother and my father, Larry Duncan loved to give her a hard time and shoot playful insults in her direction every opportunity he got. It didn't take me long to realize that Aunt Edith gave as good as she got! The reality is that they were very close and it was always a treat to hear them spar with one another which always ended in hugs and laughter. Aunt Edith had a very contagious laugh and personality. She was very loved and will be very missed by us and everyone that was fortunate enough to know her. - Love, Chris, Jessica, and Connor Duncan
