“ I am so sorry to hear about Ed's passing. He was such a wonderful man. He was our ATM vendor at the Wachovia in Salem and always told me he was going to teach me to use a fly rod to bass fish. He brought pictures and showed them to me as well. After he retired I was able to assist the family with their banking needs as a customer and I consider it an honor to share these memories with his family.##imported-begin##Kayla Adcox Wachovia Bank##imported-end##

“ I lost a lifelong and dear friend today and I would take the liberty to change his words to say, "Eddie, With a heart full of love, you have courageously done your best." I am sure we all join in the words from the 23rd Psalm, "in the Lord's own house shall I (you) dwell for ever and ever." May you rest in peace my friend.

“ Words cannot express the life, smiles, and vitality you brought to all of us in the group on a weekly basis. You will be greatly missed, but we will carry your spirit within ours and honor your memory as we strive to carry on your legacy of hope.

No one will ever be able to take your place in our group, carry your stick with the power you did, or tell stories as you did. You have a place in my heart and always will.

Joan you are still part of the family and welcome. Your presence is desired if you want to come. I love you both dearly.

“ May you cherish the memories and may God bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time. Rest assured that where Mr. Douglas is, there is no more pain and suffering. God Bless you all !

*"God looked around His garden
And He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful;
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our heart to lose you,
But you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home."##imported-begin##Carlos
