“ Dear Bonnie, Denise, & Michael. You have my heart felt sympathy. I have many memories of Edwin from working with him at Torington needle plant over 50 years ago. one of the best memories is he always called me Rastus when ever we met. It was great having a good friend like him. I have praying earnestly every day for him. I was sure I would see him sitting in the Pew at Rocky Knoll once again but I will see him again in Heaven before too long. I am sure Lillian welcomed him home. I loved him like a brother. God bless his family and friends. In God's name I write this.
