

Mrs. Elaine Brown Keane

August 11, 1944 - September 6, 2024

Elaine Brown Keane, 80, passed away at Greenville Memorial Hospital surrounded by her family on Friday, September 6th. A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Elaine was born in Atlanta to the late Mary A. Brown and William A. Brown. She attended Emory at Oxford and Georgia State, majoring in art. Elaine was a talented artist, architectural and interior designer. In 1971 she was the principal designer of one of Architectural Record magazine's 10 best interiors. She and her husband worked together in architecture on Hilton Head Island for many years before retiring to Seneca. She was an avid tennis player and enthusiast, loved reading and puzzles. Travel was one of her favorite activities. A survivor of multiple cancers and health issues, she kept a caustic wit and wry sense of humor.

Elaine was preceded in death by her sister, Linda Brown. She is survived by her husband Terry, children Molly Lilienthal and Jamie Keane, his wife Ashley and grandchildren Brian and Taylor Lilienthal.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to The American Cancer Society.

The family are at their respective homes.

Tribute Wall

CK

“ I loved all our team tennis together. She was a great tennis partner. Our team always enjoyed staying at her place at Hilton Head when we had a state tournament there.
Carol Kozma

Carol Kozma - September 10, 2024 at 09:36 AM

SA

“ sherry Abbott lit a candle in memory of Elaine Keane

sherry Abbott - September 10, 2024 at 12:15 AM

LE

“ So many wonderful memories - from potlucks at KSC to travel to Machu Picchu! Elaine will be deeply missed. Hugs and love, Lucy

Lucy Eubanks - September 09, 2024 at 04:13 PM