“ Dear Little John and Family
We were heartbroken to learn of the death of your daughter. It has been such a long time since we have seen you, and we hope you will remember us. I spoke with Sharon last year on her birthday, and she told me about her precious granddaughters. We talked about getting together when Alejandra graduated, but unfortunately, we didn't. Please know that our prayers are with you all.

“ I cannot begin to understand your loss. To see the two of you, John and Semeca, grow from classmates, friends, a couple, then one of the finest examples of what parents should be. Now to see you walk through this time in your lives, I pray for the three of you to have the strength and faith that you will need to make it through each day until hopefully the sun shines again.
