Hi Susan, Melissa and Angela. I am your cousin (my mother was Elizabeth's sister, Carol. I'm so sorry for your loss and that I couldn't be there. I just started a new job on 9/18--I have been out of work for two and a half years. May God bless all of you and comfort you. Elizabeth was a very nice and good person. I always enjoyed visiting her. Love you, Diane

I spent many hours growing up listening to Lib play the piano. I loved every minute of it. My prayers are with all of you during this time.

Elizabeth is happy now because I know she is in the presence of the Lord. I wasn't around her very much in her adult life but when I was she was very sweet. I knew her when she was growing up. We went to the same church.

“ Psalm 91

1 Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.[a]

2 I will say of the Lord, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

3 Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence.

4 He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

5 You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,

6 nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.

7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

8 You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

9 If you say, “The Lord is my refuge,” and you make the Most High your dwelling,

10 no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent.

11 For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;

12 they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

13 You will tread on the lion and the cobra;

you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

*14 "Because he[b] loves me," says the Lord, "I will rescue him;
I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.*

*15 He will call on me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble,
I will deliver him and honor him.*

16 With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."

We love you and will miss you Elisabeth
