“ I am an unseen friend of dear Betsy. I am an internet friend who never spoke to her personally nor saw her in person. I know much about her and she knew me. We played spades on the internet for years and then were Facebook friends. I live in Georgia and once she wanted to go to Shorter, Al., with a friend. She knew my husband and I went there to enjoy the dog track and slots. She asked me about it and I told her somethings about it and suggested she might consider spending the night and eating in Montgomery which is a short distance from Shorter. She did go and when she got back she was ranting about the demographics there and chastised me with a few words I can't print here. I responded that I did advise her to eat and sleep in Montgomery. I suggested I didn't because I didn't know which side of the demographics she was on. Man, she really started up then and inquired as to me! After all, we have never met. I shall miss Betsy with her keen sense of humor and the jokes she would send in emails. I pray Jim and Susan will find comfort and peace as Betsy tries to take over heaven.
