“ Libby,
You and I have always been such close friends. I miss you so much already. I will always have good memories of the things we did together throughout the years. Our trips to visit your Dad. All our dinners together, making ice cream together or just talking and laughing about life, and sometimes crying together about life. Ed and I both loved you dearly. I feel so blessed that I had the opportunity to come to your home and help you through the last part of your sickness. I remember the first week I stayed with you. You said "Marilyn, I am going to be so lonely this weekend without you. I just might come to your house and spend the weekend with you." I said well come on! But you didn't, but we did talk on the phone. It meant a lot to me that you enjoyed being with me, just as I did you. I know you are finally in peace and are free of pain now. I know you are with Jesus in paradise! I miss you, but I am so happy for you. You suffered long enough. I love you my dear friend. I'll see you in Heaven one day soon.

“ Libby, I remember how sweet and loving you were when we were younger. I moved away, when Brian was a little boy. I looked up to you because you were such a beautiful young woman, on the outside and the inside. Those beautiful dimples when you smiled! I haven't been fortunate enough to be in your life in many years, but I always heard about you through Mama and Daddy (before he went to Heaven). They both loved you. My Mother loves you like a daughter even today. I am thankful for being a small part of your life. I know you went through many, many hard years with sickness. I have prayed many prayers for your healing. I am thankful that you are no longer suffering, and I know you are with Jesus! He is with you in person now! What a wonderful gift! Please tell my Daddy I love him and miss him so very much. I know you will have a reunion with Aunt Mae, My Daddy and so many people that love you and are already in Heaven. You will be missed here on earth my sweet cousin. I love you with all my heart, and am so very thankful that you have made it to where we are all waiting to go one day. You now have a new body, no pains no worries. You are perfect now! I will see you again soon in Heaven. I love you!
