“ So sorry for your loss. I would visit with her and bring her lunch from church such fun we had just sitting and talking and when I'd get up to leave she would say stay a little and I would because it was fun to chat. She was wise and someone to emulate.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I have so many memories of this special lady. One in particular I'd like to share. The year 2006 was in particular a hard year for myself. In October I broke my foot. Ms. Lib and some of the other ladies planned a special day for me in St. John's office. She came in and had lunch with me and afterwards Ms. Lib did my hair. That was such a special day for me. I was hardly able to walk 'cause crutches and I did not get along. Prayers and blessings to you.

“ The highlight of my Mom's weeks was visiting with Miss Lib while getting her hair done. Later Miss Judy did the trick. Miss Lib had this wonderful laugh that made everyone happy while in her presence. She was one of a kind. Thanks for all the laughs, Miss Lib.

“ Oh, how I will miss Lib! I love her still! She had the most amazing sense of humor and always had a twinkle in her eye. She was such a snappy dresser. Her wisdom inspires me still, and I will cherish every conversation I ever had with her. We both always came out with a great laugh, regardless of what we talked about, and I am thankful to God for allowing her to be here as long as He did. 💕💕💕💕💕💕💕
