“ Marquita I am so saddened to read your mom's obituary! I remember when we talked and I came to realize Tinker was your mother! It was so nice speaking to her way back then! I knew her from school and in band! Please know you and Ali are in my thoughts ❤️

“ It was 2007 when I got to know Lee. My mom, Martha, and stepdad, Sonny Gaddis bought a piece of property next to one of Lee's relatives, Joan in South Carolina. The 3 of us got with Jay and Lee and went to the Flying Machine in Lawrenceville for my birthday. I got to slow dance with Lee to "When You Say Nothing At All." Fell in love with Lee's personality, didn't want to fight Jay. Lost contact with her, heard she got sick, kept up with her through Jay. Heard she passed today. Sweet lady that's going to be missed.

“ We were saddened to learn of the death of Tinker. Mary and Jerry always spoke highly of her and really was proud to have her as one of their nieces. You are in our thoughts and prayers for such a beautiful lady who had years ahead of her. Prayers.

“ Tinker was a dear classmate and I considered her a neighbor, even though she lived across town. Our mothers were friends when we were children. Mary (Tinker's mother) was so kind to me. She allowed Mama to drop me off before daylight at her house and carried me to school with Tinker.
I'm sorry to hear of your loss Mr. Harvey. You were blessed with two precious ladies.

“ Hate to hear Tinker has passed. She's my cousin but I haven't seen her in many years. When we were teenagers we would see each other a lot at Grandma Bolt's. She was always fun to be around and she has gone way too soon.

“ Tinker was our niece. She was always willing to help anyone and loved her family with deep devotion. She always had a smile and would not knowingly hurt anyone. To remember her we will always think of Wm. Shakespeare's line of "Though she be but little, she is fierce." We will miss her and regret that cancer took her away too soon. Rest easy, Tinker; your struggles are over. You can go home now. Mary& Jerry
