“ Eric was a kind hearted person who left this world much too early. I know Eric fought hard, I wish he had gone to the doctor sooner. He was determined and strong willed. I am sad for his family; I think if Eric could have lived longer he would have become the best of himself. He was talking about life getting better and making plans. I'm sorry he was not able to win the fight against covid. The virus has taken too many good people before their time. Heaven has welcomed another one home. God's speed Eric until we all see each other again.🙏
