“ We are not able to make the trip but will be celebrating Erica's life here in Florida this weekend. She was an awesome mother in love when I needed her the most and I am so sorry she was not able to meet her "granddaughter" before she left this world. I know God gained an angel in the choir, but we lost one hell of a women!! We love you forever and always!

“ Words cannot express our heartbreak for you and your family, Linda. Erica was such a warm person and precious spirit. We will miss her beautiful face and sweet smile. Praying for divine comfort for you especially on this upcoming Mother's Day. We may not have known Erica all that well, but I couldn't be more certain that she wants you to feel nothing but joy, peace, and how much she loves you. Be strong. From all of us at Presst.

Erica lit up a room with her smile, and she was beautiful inside and out. She was my daughters Godmother, and what a Godmother she was. We will miss her, and each passing day will not be the same without her. So sorry for your loss, but so happy for her scrap booking, that Shelby will have forever memories of her time spent with this wonderful lady.
