“ Dear Betty Jo, Elaine, Brenda and family,
We are all praying for you during this time of sadness and grief. There is a deep, empty hole when you loose some one so close. God will give you the peace and strength you will need to get through this time with your family. Ernest was always a good brother to LC, a good brother-in-law to me, and always treated our sons with decency and respect. He did a lot for people that may not ever be known on this earth, but He will certainly benefit the rewards in store for him in Heaven. He will be missed by all of us. Remember all the good times and know Ernest is with his precious, Heavenly Father today. We love you all.
