“ Grandpa was a great man. It don't seem like it's been a year ago when he went home to be with the lord. We found out 8 months after he went home that his granddaughter tina is expecting her second child and i know that he would have loved to be here. I know that we will get to see him again someday. I remember when i was a kid he would always ask me if I wanted to go with and grandma everywhere they went and I would go with them. We love and miss you so dearly papa
