Evangeline "Evie" Fausta Mancera, 18, of Spartanburg, passed away on November 29, 2025, in Lancaster, SC.

“ My beautiful Evangeline, I remember the day you were born, I gave you the nickname Evie that stuck with you your whole life. I miss your smile, your laughter. Being your god mom and helping raise you was a huge blessing. We spent so much time outside and you were never too girly to hang with the boys and play with dirt and worms. Saying see you later was so hard but I find peace in knowing you're there waiting for me and I will see you again soon. We love you Evie

“ When I first met Evie, she was so shy it made me smile. I remember telling her, “Don’t be shy, I’m just Auntie,” and she broke into that laugh that could brighten any room. Just last week, I was looking at her pictures. Not knowing how heavy my heart would feel today.

I remember taking them out to eat Mexican, and just watching them converse and laugh made me smile. Those moments were so simple, but so full of joy.

This is heartbreaking. She was so full of life, and her laughter alone could lift your spirit on the worst days. Evie will truly, deeply be missed.

And just like I told you the last time we talked, baby girl... I love you.

Take your rest, sweet Evie. Your spirit will live with us forever.

*Love,
Stephany and Quintin*
