“ Sorry for your loss, I remember visiting with my cousins Harold and Evelyn in the 70's. She and my mother Francis would take us swimming at the lake near their house. We had so much fun. I was only 3 or 4 years old. I remember Harold passed away many years ago. He was such a good person. I remember going fishing with him and my dad, we always caught fish. I will always remember Evelyn's green Ford Torino. I remember their house by the church in Seneca. Praying for your family.

“ Aunt Evelyn worked at small Cafe in Seneca where bounty land is now. She was my aunt and I was 14 and went to work there with her. She was like a second mom to me. I'm really going to miss her!
