“ I have many great memories of Aunt Exie and Uncle James. I loved going to Thursday dinners with them at Granny Pearl's house when I was a kid and not in school. And I loved going to her house as a kid and spending time in that big basement!!! She will be missed. I look forward to seeing her again one day!

I actually caught my first fish with Aunt Exie's help!! It's a memory I'll always have and my picture of that is something I'll always treasure.##imported-begin##Keith Crain##imported-end##

“ Ray and Alice,

Our love and prayers are with you and James and Jack's families, too. Exxie and your Dad, James, were precious friends who loved the Lord and were so supportive of our ministry at Scenic Heights.

After your Dad died, Exxie was such a pleasant, gracious, and loving friend.

Cherish your memories and let them warm your hearts! God bless each of you. Know that you are cared for during this time of sadness and, yes, joy over her "homegoing". We love you all!##imported-begin##Ray and Marilyn Allen##imported-end##
