“ Sending love and prayers to all of her loved ones. We shared a lot of fun times together when she worked at Schlumberger. May the Lord comfort you all, as I know she was definitely a woman who loved her family and friends fiercely.

“ Eyvonne & I met at Cotton Eyed Joe's in 2015 and we also met in Anderson forine dance classes & events. She always had a warm hug to offer, a beautiful smile on her face and words of kindness . Eyvonne was an excellent dancer and a beautiful person inside and out. We saw one another in Mauldin for Ramped Up Friday shortly before she became ill
We promised to do a meetup lunch in a few weeks. Sadly, we both let it slip on the calendar & when I realized she was ill, I sent her some encouraging words & we promised we would meet as soon as she felt better! So very sorry we couldn't make it work out. She has received her ULTIMATE HEALING and is in the safe and comforting arms of Jesus with no more pain, worries or anxiety. I look forward to meeting you again my sweet friend. Rest in complete peace .
