“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Lee family with these comforting words: While grief at the loss of a loved one is great, joy at receiving back a loved one in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5:42) God’s Word promises: “Your dead ones will live. (Isaiah 26:19; Acts 24:15) How wonderful that time will be! How satisfying it will be at that time to live in a world where there is no suffering! I am very sorry for your loss. May God’s Word comfort you and your family. Fannie was a genuine Ambassador for Christ, as evidenced in her daily living right up until her final breath. Her smile lit up the darkness, and her devotion to God, family, friends, and community served as an inspiration to others. Fannie got a head start on us to Heaven. We rejoice in her legacy, and we look forward to our Heavenly reunion with her and Wilburn. Love and appreciation to Gina, Brian, Ashley and family. Kay and I stand by to serve you in any way needed. God bless.

“ Gina, Brian and Ashley, We are sorry to hear of your mom's passing. I worked with Fannie for years at Nason. We took lunch together and talked about what was going on with our lives and children. Fannie was more to me than a relative. She was one of my special friends. May God bless all of your family . We will keep you in our prayers. Dalton and Betty Vaughn
