“ Dear McClain Family,
I was so saddened to hear of Faye's passing. She and I used to play together as children and talked frequently at Eva's when she worked there. She was a precious friend that I will miss. Please know that you are all in my prayers and thoughts. Just look to God in the days ahead--He will give you Peace and Comfort.
Love,

“ I have many fond memories of Faye. As a student, she was a high achiever, very popular, and a friend to many. I also knew her as the organist at College Street Baptist Church. Her musical ability added greatly to our worship services.

To Jeremy and family, please reflect often upon the many gifts Faye left you. Those gifts are known as wonderful memories.##imported-begin##John Kelley##imported-end##
