“ As time go on and we get older we all slip away from those we grew up together with. as a young teenager I spent a lot of time at Jim and Louise's home with Jimmy and Janice, I was always welcome anytime with open arms. Louise and Jim were just simple people with big Hearts. I will never forget the day Jimmy and I learned what olio is and Louise made sure that I didn't forget because many years when we would cross paths, Louise would remind me. Jimmy and Janice, Louise was like a second mother to me way back in the day When I was visiting for a few days she always made sure that I had everything I needed and that I was as comfortable as every one else in their home. Even though I didn't stay in constant contact over the years I still am going to miss her gentle hugs, her sweet smile, her motherly ways towards me and the laughs we had when she often reminded me with a big smile and a good laugh how we learned what olio is. God be with both of you and your families Jimmy and Janice. Each day we have, good or bad is a Blessing from God.
