Doug, I didn't find out about your mother's death until Christmas Day. I always loved spending time talking to her, and as a child I can remember visiting in the home when she took care of your grandmother, Mrs. Taylor. Your mom was one of the sweetest ladies I ever knew. I'm just so sorry I missed her funeral. Please forgive me. Please pass these words on to your brothers. Love to you all, Louise “ Aunt Frances... Even though we were separated by many miles and didn't get to see you for many years at a time....we always kept you in our prayers. There's not a holiday dinner that goes by that my children didn't get what they referred to as "Aunt Frances' macaroni and cheese" or "Aunt Frances' biscuits". You taught me to make it many years ago and I've done it the same ever since. My daughter Nicole now makes it for her family. The last time we were down south for a family dinner with you...Cathy and I laughed about how we used to fight over it as kids. I'll always remember your beautiful face that reminded me so much of Grandma. I so wish I could be there to say goodbye in person. Just know that you'll live on in our hearts and will forever be a part of us. Love you always.
