“ I remember all the times Sonny and I met usually at my Grandfathers House or at the Church Decoration Day. He was always cheerful and kept you laughing. We last met in July at my Sister's services and I was grateful that he came, a trip that I felt showed his deep regard and love for his kinfolk. May God Bless you till we meet again..

“ I was fortunate to get to know Frank and work with him at the Forest Service in Mountain Rest. He was always quick with a laugh and so reliable. Without complaint, he worked tirelessly to tackle messy jobs that many of us would hate to do. But at the end of the day, he was smiling and laughing still.

Frank worked many years with the US Forest Service and left us with fond memories. His humor has me smiling now even as the sorrow of his passing sets in. Many Thanks to the family for sharing Frank with us.
