“ I think Russell found a little piece of heaven when he found Sweet Water and made it his home. I know he was a blessed man, having family who loved him dearly. I know he loved you dearly and his life was full and joyful because of you all. "Pop" was quite a unique soul, truly like no other, and I cherish every memory I have of him, especially his humor, and his great love for his family, his life. Sending you a hug! Lynne

“ Allen, Sherry, and Zeke, we are so sorry to learn of Russell's passing. When Clarence saw you today we had no idea this had happened. When he returned home we talked about the Moore family and had a discussion on what they used to do together. Never in our wildest mind did we realize when I looked at this website we would see Russell's obituary. I know you loved him dearly and always enjoyed the Christmas cards that included all four of you. Our deepest sympathy. Remember we love you.
