“ *Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Whitten family with these comforting words: Long ago, the righteous man Job raised this question: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?” In answer to that question he said: “You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands.” (Job 14:14, 15) This is the hope for, Mr. Whitten, as well. I am very sorry for your loss. May God’s Word comfort you and your family. *Dear Barbara and family,
We do not know you, personally, but we have heard about you through our grand daughter, Misty and her family. You have been so good to them, and such a good neighbor. That is not common in our day. They loved and appreciated Frank.... and you too. So do we, because of how kind you have been to them. We are sorry for your loss. He will be missed. May God Bless and comfort you and his family as only He can.
