“ What a wonderful example of a great Christian lady! Gail lived her faith and witness for Christ through her daily life! To know her was to love her! I know she is rejoicing in heaven with James and son, Larry. Prayers for her family for God’s strength and comfort as they must move on in life without her earthly presence.

“ Vickie

I am know you will miss your mom terribly. I lost mine 4 years ago. My memories of Gail are about her kind sweet ways and how much fun she was! When we were youths at Collegestreet, she would accompany us crazy kids on trips to Six Flags and High Falls park and seem to enjoy as much as we did. That isn't easy with a bunch of teens. She took it in stride and loved us all the same. I want you to know you're in my prayer and know your mom is now having the time of her life at the reunion she's waited for a long time. Love you.

To know Gail was to love her dearly. Her contagious laughter was always welcomed. She was a very talented lady who always had energy to spare when needed. She was a role model for many individuals.
