“ Randy and Ginger,
I was so sorry to hear about Gary. I haven't seen any of you for years. I think of you, Randy, every football season when Walhalla and West-Oak (Westminster) play, in that, if you will remember, we used to have many disagreements at Granny Bryant's house as to exactly who would win, being that you I believe was quarterback for Walhalla at the time and I was a cheerleader for Westminster. I'm sure we all have some very fond memories of those days. I love you both and will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Mama and Jan also send their condolences.##imported-begin##Mary Bryant Davis##imported-end##

“ We had not been in touch with Tar for a couple of years but always enjoyed talking with him when we did. I remember when he was a youngster in school with my nieces and nephews. He was such a nice young man, and will be missed greatly by my family in Walhalla. May God wrap you in His Loving Arms during this troubling time.###imported-begin##Sonja & Bob Madden###imported-end##
