“ George was a great person, I worked with him at WGOG and was amazed at how easy he made everything appear. My fondest memory of George was when we did a remote in Salem, SC for a local festival, we had a lot of fun and I beat him at a milk goat milking contest. I'm sure everyone in heaven is laughing with George and his stories and wish his family well.

“ George was a unique individual who could walk into a room, look around as he acknowledge everybody there (he knew many hundreds of people) and have all smiling and laughing within seconds...a rare man with vast intelligence, sharp wit, compassion for others -especially children- and always made every body around him comfortable.... whether he was interviewing a local, state, or national leader, a local merchant, or "the man on the street.." He mentored me in my early days of radio and left me with lasting memories which would fill a book...not a bad idea..titled "River City By George." Praying for the family and many friends....

All these years and I just learned of George's passing (I'd known he was in poor health). He put my program on WSNW and I always found him to be a decent, gracious soul with a lot of smarts and a lot of savvy.
