“ I'm still missing you so much George. If you can hear my heart you will know how much I love you. I'm trying to learn how to live without you by my side, and it is not easy. I'm always wondering during my day what you might be doing in heaven. I can't imagine how beautiful heaven must be and what it must be like binging with Jesus and all his saints and angels up there.

“ I am so thankful to have had such a wonderful Dad! I always felt your unconditional love and I still do! Growing up, if you ever told me "no" and I asked, "why?"..... You would always reply, "Because I love you! :-) One of the best securities of my childhood is knowing how much you adored and loved our Mom. You showed us what a happy marriage looks like by your example. Thank you for providing for us and for all your sacrifices through the years. I love you so much Dad. I know that you will be watching over and praying for us. Can't wait to see you again someday in Heaven.
Love you forever, Te Te <3

“ I sent this poem to my brothers & sisters and was asked to post it here too –

To My Siblings

*When the call came that our Dad was ill
Our brains were a blur, the world stood still*

*We jumped on planes as fast as we could go
Our hearts breaking, the outcome we couldn't know*

*Siblings together across the miles
At times with tears and other times with sad smiles*

*As we traveled through the most difficult day to bare
We renewed the special bond that only siblings can share*

*We worried about Mom, our hearts inside out
Her courage, faith & love left us humble without a doubt*

*Our dad left us with many lessons, still teaching to the end
So much unselfishness, compassion & love that transcends*

*I feel so changed by the week of our fathers passing
So many memories & feelings constantly flashing*

*I know that you're all feeling the same way too
So hard to get on with life without feeling blue*

*But I know our Dad would not want us to be so sad
Instead he would want us to remember all the good times we've had*

*I think the biggest tribute to him we can give
Is to try to be like him as long as we live*

*To do the right thing as he always said
And to cherish our Mom in the days ahead*

“ Thanks for all the wonderful memories Dad! So many things come to mind.....family events, going to Padre games as a child, playing golf, etc. The best memory of all, however, is how great of a provider you were for all those years when all those hungry kids were growing up. I know it gave you a lot of joy to serve your wife and children the way you did, and it gives us a lot of joy knowing that you are now in a state of profound peace, and still looking after us in a different form. I love you Dad! Tom

“ I shared my last dance with my Dad two years ago at the Daddy/Daughter dance. Didn't know it would be my last time. My Dad was a wonderful dancer. He and my Mom would cut a rug better than anyone I knew. I know your dancing away in Heaven now. I miss you Dad.

“ It was just you and me for a little while before we walked down the aisle together so that you could give me away. It was a special moment that the photographer captured. I remember you telling me that you were nervous. I laughed because I thought I was the one who was supposed to be nervous. How lucky I was all my life with your quiet strength supporting me! I'll never forget how you whisked me around the dance floor like a princess at my wedding to the song "What a Wonderful World". Thank you for loving us all so well! I miss you Dad!

“ I loved to golf with my Dad , and family.
He loved it too.
We always golfed together when he came to town. I am so happy that he had 14 good years of retirement to enjoy his golf, bowling, & enjoy his beautiful South Carolina home with Mom.
He will missed but, he will always be with me when I golf.
