“ George was a humble man, caring, respectful and always smiling when I was around him and my aunt. When he married Betty Jo, George seemed like he had been in our family forever. I remember my father told me that he missed her so much. Prayers and thoughts with all of the family at this sad time.

Good memories of George. He always brought such genuine warmth and good humor to our WHS Class of 1958 reunions. He leaves a big hole in our class roster and in our hearts. Love and prayers to his families.
