After retirement, he continued to serve as an interim pastor in several churches. He was actively involved both in Kentucky and South Carolina Baptist work in the Association and State Convention. He was a member of Bethabara Baptist Church.

George was a passionate pastor and cared deeply about the needs of all people. His favorite pastime was fishing, but more importantly he was a "fisher of men" (Matthew 4:19).

In addition to his parents, George was preceded in death by three brothers, William B. Tichenor, Philip B. Tichenor, Everett L. Tichenor; three sisters,

Helen Rouse, Mary Zoeller, and Margaret Matthews; one step-grandson and one step-great-grandson.

Services will be at 2 p.m. on Sunday at James H. Davis Funeral Home & Crematory, 3009 Frederica St, Owensboro, KY 42301. Visitation is from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday and after 12 p.m. on Sunday at the funeral home. Private family burial will be at Centertown Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions to The Heartford House, Hospice of Western Kentucky, 3419 Wathens Crossing, Owensboro, KY 42301 or Bethabara Baptist Church, 2946 Kentucky 142, Philpot, KY 42366. Envelopes will be available at the funeral home.

“ Always thought a lot of your Dad and the whole family. He was very active in the association and community. I remember he was head of the "I Buy Dry" thing when Bi-Lo introduced beer into their stores. Always appreciate his efforts and his ministry. God bless each of you as you continue his ministry of serving the Lord in your own way.
