“ Mr. Laughinghouse was the most kind, loving, honest and Godly man I have ever know. I had the honor of knowing him because I am friends with Donna. He was always so good to me. Watching him be a father grandfather and husband gave me hope for a world that is not always kind. He loved God and he walked the Christian path setting an example for others. He had the most beautiful base voice. He was there for me in some dark times in my life showing me that he believed in me and that he cared about me. The world will be a sadder place without his light but heaven has a new base for the choir.
