“ So sorry to hear about Gladys. She was my supervisor at Grow Industries in Salem. I can say working with her and the other girls was a blessing to me. She cared about people and loved her family. We knew every week what Stan and Vicki were having for supper on their night to eat with Gladys and Melvin! We all still have those memories that nobody can take away. Heaven just gained another Angel!!!

“ So sorry to hear about Gladys. She was my supervisor at Grow Industry in Salem. I can say working at Grow with Gladys and the other girls was a blessing to me. She cared about people, loved her family, loved her church, loved God. We would always know what Stan & Vickie was having for supper on their night to eat with her. She treated every body like her own, helped us make our production, she worked just like we worked . We all have those memories that nobody can take away. Heaven just gained another angel.

“ Gladys was one of the best nabors anyone could have. I didn't get to see her much after I moved away but I always thought about her and Melvin. I know heaven is a brighter place today with her kind smile and gentle heart.

“ I haven't seen Gladys in more years than I care to admit (maybe since the last reunion at Uncle Ford's 🙄). She was always the sweetest ❤️
Thinking of all the family, she will be dearly missed.
