“ Gladys was a true southern lady - kind, generous, and funny. Always wanted to be in church. When she was no longer able to attend, it left a void that no one else could fill. Rhett and I have very different, but fond memories of this sweet lady. Mike, you took such good care of her and that's just another expression of the good example she was. God bless you for that. I know she's in Heaven today. Ours prayers are now for your peace and comfort.
