“ *Linda and family, your dad seemed to be a “gentle giant” to me the many times I stayed over at your house during high school. A man of few words, he always made me very comfortable while there. Just a few weeks ago Clarence asked if Glenn were still alive. We had no idea he was at Park Place. I am sure taking care of him these last years has been hard, but what a blessing you were able to do it. I found those last years with my dad was a time of deep, deep blessings and another chance to renew wonderful conversations. We love our dads!
Sending love to you, Paul and your family.

“ Mr. Adams was a nice person and wonderful neighbor. My best friend and I played under his trees behind his woodshed in the dirt when we were kids. He didn't seem to mind, and he never said a thing. I remember him and his garden he had across the road. His little dog was always by his side. He was a nice person, and neighbor. He'll be missed. 🙏❤️

“Glen Adams was a most special man. I got to know him for several years while he was at Park Place. We became good buddies. He was so grateful for all of those who cared for him. Whether it was caring for his personal needs, fixing a burned out light, bringing him his morning paper, or just stopping by to say hello, he never failed to express his appreciation. He always said to me " I appreciate what you do for this old man" and he meant that sincerely. And many times I would tell him "Mr. Adams, it is because of that expressed appreciation, that it is a joy and pleasure to help you". So my encouragement to anyone who reads this, consider those words from a very good hearted man. Instead of complaining or finding fault, offer words of appreciation. Mr. Adams modeled that with a true heart, may we follow that example. Express your appreciation to someone everyday. I will surely miss my buddy.

“ Glenn was a next door neighbor, a valued friend, and a bass fishing buddy when we were both younger than today! Both Glenn and Rena were salt of the earth people, and we were all better for having known them! May God bless all family and friends, and grant them each his healing peace!
