“ Aunt Tally,
I am so sorry to hear about Uncle Glenn. He was a very special uncle. Although, I don't travel much you are always in my thoughts and prayers. Heaven has gained another "Payne" angel and I am sure he is celebrating with all of his family.

One of my sweetest memories was when Barbara and I spent the night at your house when he was in the Navy. Remember, we slept on a pallet in the kitchen of your small home. We loved it and will always remember you making our visit so special. That seems like ages ago but a sweet memory.

Blessings,
Linda
