“ My grandmother, L.E. Carver, and MawMaw Grace were neighbors and friends for more years than we can count. She and Frank as well as most generations of your family have had such a wonderful impact on our family. I spent many days at the side of my MeMaw and Grace watching and learning so many things; canning, sewing, quilting and the list goes on. What an amazing legacy for your family. May God bless you all through the coming days and weeks. Love from the family of L.E. Carver

“ I was blessed to know Grace for a few years while she was still living on her own at her home on Ames. I delivered meals to her once a week and was always invited in. She was always so happy to see me and would give me a big smile and clap her hands with joy as I entered and sat to visit with her. I would sit with her in her living room for 10 or 15 minutes visiting and listening to her stories of her life and family. What a blessing it was, for me to share those times with her. i have missed those visits, but will treasure the memory of them.

“ Ted, Vera and Family, I ALWAYS saw Grace as a very Classy, Godly lady! You can honestly say ... "she has fought a good fight." ...and you can take comfort in knowing that she has at last crossed the “finish line” and is safely “home” with her precious Frank and her heavenly Father, and is now enjoying her "new, young body"!

The time you had with her was an incredible gift from God. I know you have many wonderful memories. Each time we embrace a memory, we meet again with those we love, for the heart never forgets. She was an incredible lady whom everyone loved.

Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with you daily. May these words of comfort rest gently upon your heart, and in time may they become words of healing.

We love you.

So sad to learn of your mother's passing. God surely blessed you with so many wonderful years with your precious mother. She and my mother, Mildred McCoy were good friends. We all loved Mrs. Edgar. She was so witty and quick to respond to keep everyone laughing in such a positive way. A fine Christian lady was your mother. She truly loved the Lord and she loved her family. God bless each and everyone of her children, grandchildren, and greats.*

We met this precious, godly woman in the 80's when we were transferred from NC to this lovely place called Seneca. We started attending United Assembly but we had the opportunity to visit with Papa & Barbara this church called Full Gospel. There we were met by Pastor Ted & Sister Vera, then here comes a little short, bubbly woman who introduces herself as MauMau(uncertain of spelling). If you weren't saved before you talked to her then you most certainly would be when you walked away cause she would make sure of it. She loved all the little kiddies & they loved her. She was a charm to be around. Heaven gained a wonderful soul the other morning when the Lord surely said, "Come on home MauMau, it's time for you to rest now.". Gail & Edd Stovall

Ted, Vera and the family, I am 77 years old and I can not remember not knowing Granny Edgar, She has been a fireball for the Lord her whole life and friend to everyone she met. it appears the Lord is calling his patriarch's home now. with Rev Graham in February and Ms. Grace the next month. May the Lord wrap the family up with His bountiful grace and mercy during the coming days. Rachel and I love this family dearly. Sure am glad we had the opportunity to visit her a few weeks back. She still knew this now old gray headed mill hill hick and hug my neck.
