“ I am so thankful that Guery was a part of my life. Having had the opportunity to spend time with him as a teenager through my formative years as a young man was a blessing. He was a fantastic story teller and you could always count on him for a funny joke. Now some times he would get so tickled telling it he had to take a break. Guery was who you went to see if you needed help with anything. In my eyes there was nothing he could not do or figure out if you gave him a little time.
