“ Papa we laid you to rest in PEACE today! I will always cherish my precious memories spent with you and nanny. Even know it was very hard to say goodbye on Friday. I am very thankful to God for allowing me to hold and pray with you as you met Jesus . I know you are dancing on the streets of gold, and you are now an Angel watching over me and my family.
You will be missed and was loved dearly!
I Love You!

“ Eric Davis,
My papa will be missed very much. He and my Nani were so good to us all. I spent much of youth through the summer with them as we worked with papa on the trash route. I used to love staying Monday-Thursday with them and the memories on that route I will always remember. I probably would have lived with them if mama & daddy would have let me. He was a tuff man who was delt some major adversities in his life but made the best of it and over came them. I never saw him complain, he just keep going. Gosh, I have so many memories and stories of them there isn't enough space to list them all. He was my last remaining grandparent and I miss him so much. Our Sunday's will be hard not having him to go see, we always went on Sunday to see him when we could. He loved all three of our children and it was so funny when he and Lois would say there names as they had a hard time pronouncing them and it would be a couple different names. To my papa, I & we love you very very much. Love Eric, Allyson, Aubree, Wade, Veda.
